

Rachel Cross Biography

Ms. Cross graduated summa cum laude from Metropolitan State College of Denver in 2001, majoring in Criminal Justice & Criminology. She also obtained an Associate of General Studies Degree with Criminal Justice Emphasis in August 1999 and an Associate of Applied Technology Degree in May 1998 from the Community College of Aurora.

Prior to joining Burns, Figa & Will, P.C., Rachel worked as a paralegal focusing primarily on real estate and civil litigation.

Ms. Cross is a member of the Rocky Mountain Paralegal Association and Colorado Association of Litigation Support Managers. She currently volunteers for the Metro Volunteer Lawyers' Family Law Court program and the Arapahoe County Pro Se Resource Center.