

Jeremy P. Cohen Biography

Mr. Cohen devotes his practice to all aspects of tax, business, estate planning, and the related administration of estates and trusts. Mr. Cohen assists clients with wills, trusts, powers of attorney, lifetime gifting plans, charitable trusts, business succession plans, life insurance trusts, and other tax favored planning opportunities. His background in rural Nebraska allows him to understand and counsel farmers, ranchers and their families concerning their business organizations, succession plans, real estate matters and conservation easement transactions. He acts as an advocate and counselor in tax, probate, guardianship, conservatorship, and elder law matters.

He represents clients in audits, appeals and negotiations with state and federal taxing authorities regarding income, estate, sales and use taxes. He enjoys advising clients in the creation and growth of closely held businesses as well as public and private charitable organizations and foundations.

Mr. Cohen has lectured on estate and income tax topics to various groups, including the ABA Probate and Property Section, the Taxation and Probate Sections of the Colorado Bar Association, the Centennial Estate Planning Counsel, the Kansas State University Agricultural Extension Program, and Colorado Free University.

In addition to his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Denver in 1986 where he graduated in the top 10% of his class with honors in the Order of St. Ives, he completed his LL.M. in Taxation at the University of Denver Graduate Tax Program in 1992. He was honored as the “Best of the Bar” attorney in the area of Trusts and Estates by vote of the legal community in the Denver Metropolitan area and holds the highest peer rating of “AV” issued by Martindale Hubbell.

Mr. Cohen is admitted to practice in the States of Colorado, 1986 and Nebraska, 1990, the U.S. Court of Appeals 10th Circuit and the U.S. Tax Court. He is a member of the Rocky Mountain Estate Planning Counsel.

Mr. Cohen was born in Grant, Nebraska. He enjoys spending time with family, travel, hunting with his springer spaniel, and managing his family's farm operation in southwest Nebraska. He is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Food Bank of the Rockies Endowment Fund and frequently provides pro bono services to other charitable, educational and religious organizations in Colorado.
